

The English Springer Spaniel Field Trial Association will be holding their 44th National Amateur Championship in the Hutchinson Kansas area. The trial headquarters will be the Grand Prairie Hotel and Convention Center. The trial will begin Monday, December 4th and conclude December 7th or 8th.

We are expecting 150 of the best amateur handled Springer Spaniels in North America. Our judges this year are Tim Lindsey and Roy Hopkins and they will have the daunting challenge of selecting this year's National Amateur Champion English Springer Spaniel. These dogs will compete in five land series and one water series under hunting conditions in which their ability to find, flush and retrieve game while working for their handlers and the guns will be fully tested.

On the Evening of Monday, December 4th, we will have a banquet for all the contestants and spectators featuring a silent auction table. We invite your company to participate in this unique opportunity to showcase your products or services by donating items for the auction. Any product, literature or promotional items can be displayed with your donation. What a great opportunity to reach this diverse group of sporting enthusiasts. As an added benefit the owners of ESSFT.com have graciously offered to list all donors and sponsors on their website, which is viewed by all Spaniel enthusiasts. Please don't miss this opportunity to expose your company to this great group of sporting enthusiasts.

Donations should be sent to:

Dear Sir or Madam:

The English Springer Spaniel Field Trial Association will be holding their National Open Field Trial Championship at the beautiful Hillendale Hunt Club in Tyrone, PA and the surrounding lands located in historic Sinking Valley in Central Pennsylvania starting on November 12, 2006 until conclusion. The Mid-East InterClub and Mid-Penn ESSC are the hosts for this year's event. Our headquarters will be the Ramada Inn and Conference Center in Altoona, Pennsylvania.

We are expecting around 160 dogs to participate in this event, coming from coast to coast. The Judges, Tom Meyer and Paul McGagh, will have the job to assess the game-finding, steadiness, and retrieving abilities of the dogs in order to determine this year's National Open Champion. At the National level, you will see performances of the dogs under typical hunting conditions and witness the important part the dog plays in the field. They will be tested in five land series and one water series over several days of competition.

After the first day of competition, there is a banquet and a silent auction table at the headquarters hotel. This year, we invite your company to send us a donation for the silent auction. In exchange for your generous donation, we will display your product with any literature or other promotional information that you send along. We will also provide your name and donation information on the auction sheet, as well as a verbal mention at the conclusion of the auction. Additionally, the owners of ESSFT.com, Mary Kemper and Nadine Kohn, have graciously offered to list all National Open Championship sponsors/donators on their website.

Please don't miss out on this important opportunity to expose your product to dedicated english springer spaniel enthusiasts involved in many aspects of hunting and shooting

Thank you in advance for your support in helping us have a successful event. If you have any questions or would like to donate a door prize please contact me at 625-2233 or trbutler@ptd.net. In the case of large items, please contact me to confirm where the item should be shipped. You can send your donation to:
